President's Column

Dear friends and colleagues:

We are very excited to present a very pleasant and an enjoyable AACIO semi-annual dinner-education and entertainment program at Hilton Orlando Hotel (opposite the Orange County Convention Center), 6001 Destination Parkway, Orlando, Florida on Sunday, March 11, 2018. This program is being organized by AACIO in collaboration with ISCU (Dr. Nanda), FAPI (Dr. Raj Sharma), BIMDA (Mr. Glad Kurian) and CAPI (Dr. Priya Vishnubhotla). As you might imagine, this meeting will be well attended and there are ample opportunities socializing and networking.

I extend my warm invitation to each and every one of you to attend this dinner meeting at no cost of course. I am certain your 4 hours of time will be well spent at this meeting. There will be delicious Indian cuisine and drinks, a brief educational program and finally an enchanting Bollywood music, and songs by world famous Mrs. Sadhna, Dr. Amit Chakrabarty and his Geethanjali group. Please don't miss this unique opportunity to meet and greet your friends while you are having a bite to eat and catch a piece of Bollywood music. The AACIO

Board and I are highly grateful to Distinguished Professor, Dr. Navin Nanda, Dr. Rakesh Sharma, Mrs. Lindy Chapman, Dr. Debashish Roychoudhury and Dr. Jagadeesh Kalavakunta for their initiatives, ideas and their untiring and unceasing efforts to make this program successful.

Once again, we are highly grateful to Astra Zeneca, Mr. Raweesh Chaudhary and his distinguished colleagues for their unconditional support to this educational program. Dr. Nanda and I personally thank Dr. Raj Sharma, Mr. Glad Kurian and Dr. Priya Vishnubhotla and their associations for collaborating with us in this great program. We are highly indebted to Dr. Amit Chakrabarty and Sadhna for using their precious time and resources for entertaining our exciting audience.

Finally, I ask all of you to be active members of AACIO and enhance its scope and strength. In the near future, we hope to make AACIO a permanent body to serve the needs of all the cardiologist of Indian origin forever.

Hanumanth K. Reddy, M.D.
President

AACIO HONOREES

Shashin Desai, M.D., graduated from the University of Natal (South Africa) School of Medicine in 1980. After completing a one-year internship in South Africa, he moved to Rochester, New York to complete his residency in internal medicine at St. Mary's Medical Center affiliated with the University of Rochester, NY. Dr. Desai then completed a general cardiology fellowship at Hartford Hospital in Connecticut, followed by a nuclear cardiology fellowship at Massachusetts General Hospital, and an interventional cardiology fellowship at Hartford Hospital. He moved to Florida and has been in the practice of cardiovascular medicine since 1990. Dr. Desai is board certified in cardiology, interventional cardiology and nuclear cardiology. He is on active staff at multiple community hospitals. He became a member of AAPI (American Association of Physicians of Indian Origin), AACIO (American Association of Cardiologists of Indian Origin) and BIMDA (Brevard Indian Medical Dental Association) during the infancy of these organizations, in addition to membership in multiple other organizations. He serves on multiple committees in the hospital and is an active participant in community organizations and activities. We proudly honor him for his contributions to the community and to AACIO.

Glad Kurian, Vice President, Morgan Stanley, Melbourne, Florida, is Honorary Executive Director and a Founder of The Brevard Indo-American Medical and Dental Association (BIMDA), Florida's leading Indian Medical Association, an AAPI Sub-Chapter based in Melbourne, Florida since 1995. Over the past several years Mr. Kurian has served a leadership role with various organizations in pro bono capacity, managing five Florida based medical organizations including BIMDA serving as Honorary Executive Director; Central Florida Association of Physicians from the Indian Sub-Continent (CAPI, 1997-2012); Treasure Coast Indo-American Physician Society (TIPS, 2004-2014); Indian Physicians of Florida (IPOF, 2005-2010) and Jacksonville Area Indian American Medical Association (IAMA, 2005-2010). Mr. Kurian has played a pioneering role in developing the Florida based network of Indian Physicians during the course of his philanthropic hobby in the past two decades. In 2015, Mr. Kurian was awarded the Congressional Medal of Special Recognition by Honorable Congressman Bill Posey (R) Florida District 8 for "community service and leadership". On March 10, 2018 he will be receiving Eckerd Kids inaugural 'Community Commitment Award' representing Morgan Stanley as Volunteer. We are proud to honor him for his community service and for his contributions to AACIO.

Amish M. Parikh, M.D., a Central Florida native and University of Miami alumni, Dr. Parikh attended medical school at the University of South Florida; he completed his Residency at Miami's Jackson Memorial Hospital and his Cardiology Fellowship at University of Florida-Shands Hospital in Jacksonville. Dr. Parikh is a member of the Florida Medical Association and a fellow of the American College of Cardiology; he is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in Cardiovascular Disease and by the American College of Radiology in Nuclear Medicine. He has practiced Cardiology in Central Florida since 2000 and enjoys privileges at both Orlando Health and Florida Hospitals. Dr. Parikh takes a patient-centered approach to heart-care; he serves on the Board for the Orange County Medical Society and A Gift for Teaching. His long term leadership involvement with both Central Florida Association of Physicians from the Indian Subcontinent and with the American Association of Physicians of Indian Origin were taken to a new level when he served as the Convention Chair for the 33rd AAPI Convention and Scientific Assembly held in Orlando in June 2015. His service to the Indian American Chamber of Commerce ramps up each year as he leads a team in production and promotion of what the Orlando Magic call "The Best Heritage Night in the NBA:" Orlando Magic INDIA DAY . Blending his talents for heart-care with his passion for his community and his family, Dr. Parikh continues to be honored to serve and support the Central Florida Community. AACIO proudly honors him for his exemplary and outstanding achievements.

Nagaraja (Raj) D. Sharma, M.D., F.A.C.C. is a cardiologist with the Florida Cardiology Group in Brooksville, Florida. Dr. Sharma graduated from St. Aloysius College in Mangalore, India (1985) and from the Government Medical College in Mysore, India (1990). From 1990 to 2004, he did a Rotating Internship at K.R. and Combined Hospitals in Mysore, India (1990-1991) and then came to Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan for his Internship, Residency, Cardiology Fellowship (1993-1999) and then did an Interventional Cardiology Fellowship (2003-2004) at St. John Hospital and Medical Center in Detroit, Michigan. Dr. Sharma is current President of the Florida Association of Physicians of Indian Origin (FAPI) and has been an office bearer for FAPI since 2013. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, Cardiology and Interventional Cardiology. Dr. Sharma has held various positions at MEC of Bayfront Brooksville and Springhill Campuses. Before joining the Florida Cardiology Group in 2004, he was a cardiologist in St. Joseph and Niles, Michigan. AACIO proudly honors Dr. Sharma for all his outstanding achievements and services to the community.

Priya Vishnubhotla, M.D. is President of the Central Florida Association of Physicians from the Indian Subcontinent (CAPI). She is a Hematologist/Oncologist with special interest in Hematological malignancies and Breast cancer. Dr. Vishnubhotla is passionate about educating and mentoring the next generation of physicians. Dr. Vishnubhotla is the Chief of Medicine at the Orlando VAMC. She is a member of the National Breast Cancer Clinical Advisory Group at VHA. We honor her for her contributions to the community and to AACIO.
