Lunch will be provided and the venue will be announced later.

Dayan Naik, M.D.
President, AACIO

Dear AACIO Members:

On behalf of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors of the AACIO, I would like to invite each of you to attend the Dinner Meeting on Sunday, November 13, 2005. Complete details are included in another section of the Newsletter. It is our privilege to have Dr. Prakash Deedwania give a CME presentation entitled "Confront the Challenge: Treating Patients to their Dyslipidemia Goals". We acknowledge the support of Astra-Zeneca Pharmaceutical and want to thank them for sponsoring this event.

Presentations will be made by Dr. Krishna Ramaswamy and Dr. Madhukar Deshmukh AACIO Young Investigator Awardees and a dinner will follow. A special thank you to the Awards Committee, Drs. Navin C. Nanda (Chairman), Prakash Deedwania, Kishore Harjai, Gopal Lalimalani, Jawahar L. Mehta, Rajat Sanyal, Sukh Dev Sharma and Satinder Swaroop, in reviewing all abstracts submitted for consideration for the AACIO Young Investigators Award.

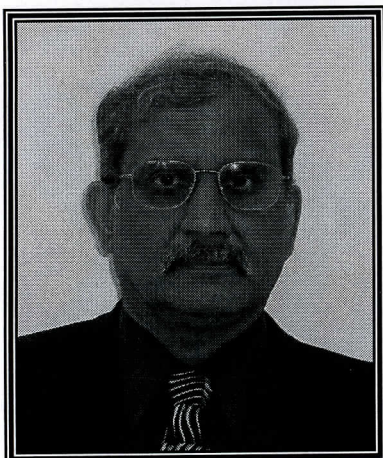

The AACIO Newsletter is published twice a year in the Spring and Fall just prior to our meetings. If you have any interesting news items regarding AACIO members you would like us to consider publishing in this newsletter, please send them to me.

We look forward to meeting each of you in Dallas on Sunday, November 13, 2005.

Dayan Naik, M.D.
President

Debasish Roychoudhury, M.D.
Secretary

Dr. Naresh Parikh To be Honored

Dr. Naresh Parikh of Atlanta, Georgia will be honored at this meeting. Dr. Parikh graduated from Nagpur Medical College, Nagpur, India and did his training in internal medicine and cardiology in New Jersey and New York. He has been in active cardiology practice in the Atlanta area for over 20 years. He has served as the President of the Georgia Association of Physicians of India and also as the President and CEO of the Georgia Clinic. He has been very active in community affairs in Georgia and has helped establish a charitable medical clinic in Atlanta under the auspices of BAPS and has conducted many health camps. He has also helped conduct surveys of the prevalence of coronary artery disease, stroke and related risk factors such as diabetes and hypertension in Asian Indians living in the State of Georgia. This work was recently published. He has previously hosted AACIO meetings in Atlanta and has been selected as the Convention Chairman of the American Association of Physicians of India meeting to be held in Atlanta next year. AACIO is proud to honor this veteran cardiologist.
